January Minutes:

- Did not have distributed prior to meeting, please review and make comments via email.

WS Police Report:

- Auto theft is up YTD 28%
- ALRP – license plate reader - if getting up and running
- Burglary is up 21% - NE Delridge and Alaska Junction – hot spots
- Fauntleroy area theft, and motor vehicle theft is down
- Catalytic converter theft; 2019 – 13 reported, 2020 – 700, '21 - 123 YTD
- Instances of domestic violence up in West Seattle

- Homeless encampment – best option is to use the Find-it-Fix-it app – police hands are tied

Ferries:

- Hadley Rodero from WSF gave an update on the Fauntleroy Ferry replacement project and encouraged participation in two upcoming public meetings for Fauntleroy Ferry Dock project.
- They will be the 1st round of public meetings
- Application to join Community Group to follow in several weeks
- They are interested in having a member from FCA, encouraging community participation in public meetings
- Part of process will be based on PEL – Planning Environmental Linkages – idea is to accelerate environmental process
- Purpose / need will be 1st task for community group
- All options are on the plate, no preconceived ideas

Volunteer Spreadsheet:

- Request for volunteers in on membership form, requires manual data entry
- Concern is if we ask people to volunteer and then do not reach out (use) them, does it send bad message?
- Review volunteer opportunity, do really need / want help?
- Claudia Levi offered to create Google doc that will allow for electronic registration for volunteer opportunity, will still need to be uploaded to data base
- Leaders of volunteer activities get back to Mike, if do not need, will remove

Survey Results Summary

- Sticker draft for use on crossing flag holder, and general use, was shown, everyone liked and approved
- Advocacy Issues: The survey results indicated strong support for FCA's continued efforts to advocate for the community.
- Items not addressed: Ferries, FCA at large and Historic Preservation
- Will discuss in separate meetings, Mike will set up
- Items to keep moving forward on;
 - Speeding
 - Cutting through neighborhoods
- SDOT can provide radar Mike will look into

Past due memberships:

- Have list of those that are two years in arrears
- Many are active, just seem to have let membership lapse
- Susan will review list, know many to be active and interested
- Review list, highlight those you would like to reach out to call
- New labels, suggestion to highlight the membership date, to bring attention to
- QR code on label may be way for member to quickly access membership information

Website update:

- Bill posted articles / information that he has received
- Encourages everyone to provide updated information, he sent out a list
- Accomplishment / current events looking better

Easter Egg Hunt:

- Purchase plastic or environmentally friendly colored eggs and stickers – no candy or small items that could be a choke hazard. Kimberly will provide FCA info and how to submit pictures
- Scatter around area weekend of March 27-28
- Claudia has volunteered to collect plastic eggs in bin at her house, Susan looking to do same at Schoolhouse
- Announcement will be provided on website
